SYNOPSIS

This Act creates the Delaware Large Capacity Magazine Prohibition Act of 2019. The Act includes clear definitions for the term “large capacity magazine,” as an ammunition feeding device with a capacity to accept more than 10 rounds of ammunition. After enactment, possession of large capacity magazine will be a class B misdemeanor for a first offense and a class E felony for any subsequent offense.

Those who possess a prohibited large capacity magazine when this Act takes effect must, by June 30, 2020, relinquish the large capacity magazine to a law-enforcement agency in this State. This Act establishes a buyback program for large capacity magazines, to be overseen by the Department of Safety and Homeland Security.
